

April 19, 2019

Parafinczuk Wolf Susen Partner Marcus Susen Presents at Mass Torts Made Perfect Conference

Fort Lauderdale, FL - Marcus Susen, partner with Parafinczuk Wolf Susen, presented at the 2019 Mass Torts Made Perfect conference in Las Vegas. The panel, "Essure Discontinued: Where do we go from here?" discussed the latest legal update regarding the thousands of Essure cases that are filed across the country.

Susen is board certified in Civil Trial Law and serves as lead counsel for the Plaintiff's Steering Committee for the Essure mass tort litigation and was the first to file a lawsuit against Bayer in this case, having overcome the device's pre-market approval.

MTMP conferences are designed for individuals working in the area of plaintiff mass torts and personal injury litigation, as well as those with a single-event practice looking to expand and grow their practices to include mass torts.

###

About Parafinczuk Wolf Susen, P.A. (PWS):

Parafinczuk Wolf Susen (PWS) specializes in first-party property insurance defense, personal injury, workers' compensation, Engle tobacco cases, the national Essure mass tort litigation and now cases involving hearing loss from 3M ear plugs.

PWS is headquartered in Fort Lauderdale and serves locales throughout the state of Florida and nationally through its mass tort litigation. For more information, visit www.pwslawfirm.com.